

David's Page

As I am a celebrity I'm very popular and well known, but it hasn't always been like that. A long time ago I was just a regular person... I WAS a shepherd boy. One day Goliath asked someone to have a fight with him so I thought, you know why not, I mean I kill lions and bears everyday, this should be no different. I came up to him and got my sling and stone and hit him right on his head. From then on I have been a favourite of Saul's and loads of other things. I really like poetry, music and at the moment I'm in the middle of writing the psalms.
